DAILY TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1853.

The Provincial Parliament was recognized on the 24th inst. The country has been a long and laborious one, and productive of much real and solid benefit. The present financial position of the Province affords cheering prospects to all interested in its progress and prosperity. The following among other important measures, long and anxiously sought for, have been enacted: The Representation—the Elective Franchise—the Clergy Reserves—the Provincial Lunatic Asylum—the Elective Legislative Council—the Seigniorial Tenure—the Grand River Navigation Company—the Public Improvements—the Law Reform.

The Montreal Herald says that these and many other acts of paramount importance, which have been carried and are now the laws of the land, afford abundant testimony of the disposition of the government to meet the just expectations of the country. Without fear of any unfair construction we assert that there has been done during the late session to vindicate the loyalty, and the substantial advancement of the Province, than the result of the united exertions of all the governments since the union has been effected.

The Panama.—We learn by the Halifax Chronicle that two armed vessels sailed from Halifax on the 11th, one for Newfoundland, and the other for Cape Sable, to protect the fisheries. The vexed question of the fisheries is every day assuming a more serious aspect. The fact of a British Colonial vessel having been driven off a part of the coast by a French cruiser, denotes the importance of the subject. It is now understood that the French have claims which, however long they may have been in abeyance, are nevertheless tangible.

The blundering treaties made from time to time by the British government are matters of history. It remains to be seen whether the Americans cannot yet even up as good a claim to the waste of the fisheries as the French have to a part of them. The claim recently set up by France, has had the effect of satisfying the treaties that have been entered into between England, France and the United States, and the developments are said to be particularly favorable to the exclusive claims of England as she might desire.

Rheumatism.—The Atlanta wild-cat is now universally prostrated in the counties along the Illinois river. This is also the case generally in Wisconsin, and throughout the lead mines. In the lumber regions, a bushel of it would not buy a bushel of corn. We make mention of this for the benefit of travelers passing through our city, as we learn there are parties here who lose no opportunity of imposing upon them the Atlanta trash. It is a shameful scheme of imposition, but all we can do is to counteract it is to call attention to the fact.

Property Changing Lost.—Our citizens were startled, yesterday, by a telegraphic dispatch from Detroit, announcing the total loss of the propeller Chicago, and the death of five of the crew, about twenty miles below Mackinaw. She was a new boat, and was making her return trip to Buffalo, having left here several days ago with a large cargo of Oats, and 501 bbls. Mess Pork and 47 tierces do. We believe she was insured, but it is questionable whether recovery can be had for such kind of loss. The cargo was not insured. Messrs. Flint & Wheeler the owners of the Pork, were insured $600, and the Buffalo Mutual and Chicago Mutual had risked $6,000 and $8,200, respectively. This is the first loss of any amounts that the latter Company has met with since its organization.

Many Republicans.

One of our largest Forwarding and Produce buying houses, on Water street, yesterday received five orders from the canal, a package of At lasts and at-lasters, that had been sent down several days ago to pay for produce. It was "no go,"—nobody could touch it. So it must go back to its manufacturer, George Smith.

The boundary of circulation of Smith's wildcat, is drawing closer to its city. The outposts are now at or on the Fox river, and they are weak there. In a few days the animal will be driven into the city, and strangled, as it ought to be.

A New Dodge.—We hear it rumored that Geo. Smith is trying to buy up another straw Bank Charter, to aid him in defeating the bills of the Wisconsin Marine and Fire Insurance Co. which the last of the last Legislature is driving in upon him a little too fast. The Atlantis was to be the means of redeeming those things, but as it has failed in its purpose, the emergency is critical. In not this fact very strong presumptive evidence that Smith's reputed great wealth is all "moonshine?"

Milwaukee and Watertown Rail Road Contract Let.

The Milwaukee Sentinel states that the contract for the construction of the Milwaukee and Watertown Rail Road was let on Wednesday to Bishop & Co. of Bridgeport, Connecticut. They agree to build and equip the road by the 1st of July, 1854, for $175,000 per quarter, of which they take in stock. We are told they pledge their credit to the amount of $30,000 in aid of this row?

☞ The new Boston Age announces that the citizens of Mercer County have almost unanimously voted to pledge the bonds of the County for $100,000, as stock in the Western Air Line Railroad.

These county pledges of stock to railroad schemes are becoming alarmingly frequent—Suppose the Western Air Line Railroad should not pay, would the people of Mercer County tax themselves to the extent of $7,000 per year to pay the interest on their bonds? That is an important question.

Strangers.—On Sunday night our streets be came crowded with citizens of Newport, effected their escape. The only way by means they crossed the river in non-navigable. Several respectable persons left in company—one of them a woman whose two children would have been from their mother's side. The owners of the fugitives represent that they have been treated with kindness, and their conduct surprises all who know them. They have been taken in to-night's train.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Black people, for their own interests, however ever dark and cool fact they may be, have pretty well defined ideas of the advantages of liberty. Possibly they may have read of the fate of poor "Uncle Tom," after the death of his kind master, St. Clair, and acted on the maxim, "Discretion is Religion."

The court is only one single case of what is daily taking place. The Ohio and Indiana shores are daily, or more correctly nightly, marked by the foot-prints of fugitives, and the danger of capture is daily and hourly becoming less. The poorer are the facilities at Kentucky, during the Ohio river, have become a source of profit to those who truly loyalty occasion (the cause of which I explain all description). The mob of some six or seven hundred strong, and our side about forty—yet they laboured not, although death appeared at times to stand near, even in their path. Yet their only strife appeared to be who should be first to retreat in the affray, or escape the post of danger."

Let the impression go forth that Geo. Smith & Co. are endeavoring to muzzle the Press, and the last "spasm of the Atlanta Bank" will soon be over."

Correspondence of the Philadelphia North American.

From Venezuela.

Caracas, May 29th, 1853.

In my last I informed you of the critical state of affairs here, and the probability of a revolution. I did not then suppose that such an event, although so certain and inevitable, was so close at hand. It has already commenced. A counter arrived here this morning from Valencia, bringing intelligence of a revolutionary outbreak at that place. The revolutionists have a force of 2,000 strong, headed by expert leaders. It is supposed that they will march directly to this capital, and that they will meet with but little or no opposition.

President Managas is completely isolated; his party, the liberal party entirely abandoned him. The Council of Government have invested him with extraordinary powers, and granted him money to raise five thousand troops, and a loan of five hundred thousand dollars. Up to this time, however, he has not been able to obtain either. He has for the last twenty days been shut up in his own house, where he receives his cabinet ministers three times a week, and day, at this office of the country.

The Diplomatic or Paez party here nothing to do with the present outbreak. It is simply a movement of the liberal or democratic party, the object of which is to displace the present incumbents, and to change the form of government over to one of the many aspirants of the liberal party; with the hope that such a change will insure to the party control of the country, and add to the popularity of the party. The feeling in the people of this country know not what they are doing, they are restless and discontented, and seeking a change of ruler, vainly thinking that their political and social condition will thereby be greatly ameliorated, while past experience has most emphatically proven the contrary.

A Desperate Struggle.—A crazy, drunken mob of six hundred rowdies had a desperate fight in the seventeenth ward in New York on Sunday last. When the murderous affray was at its height, Captain Hart, with a police force of only forty men, attacked the whole crowd, dispersed the rioters, taking as prisoners seventeen of their number. The Captain, in his report, says:

"In conclusion, I feel it a duty to say a word in behalf of the men whom I had the honor to command on this truly trying occasion (the cause of which I explain all description). The mob of some six or seven hundred strong, and our side about forty—yet they labored not, although death appeared at times to stand near, even in their path. Yet their only strife appeared to be who should be first to retreat in the affray, or escape the post of danger."

The Atlanta Bank and its Suits.

Of the course taken by Geo. Smith & Co. in commencing suits against the Wisconsin for libel, the Milwaukee Free Democrat well says,

"This is an acknowledgment, virtually, of a bad cause. A good institution needs only a free Press to vindicate its claims. It is idle to think of having watered paper upon the community by attempting to silence the Press.

The sovereignty of the State is insulted by any attempt on the part of a monied corporation to secure and maintain a circulation for unauthorized paper, by defiance of the fundamental laws of the land, and in opposition to the universal sentiment of the community, in the city and in the country.

In respect to the Atlanta Bank currency, we have heard but one opinion expressed, viz: that it is unauthorized, and that justice and self respect demand of all our citizens a firm refusal of its promises to pay.

We feel confident that—if Geo. Smith & Co. are going to attempt to bear libel—to come to the Press into silence on a question of such vital importance, involving the interests of the whole North West, they will find that they have engaged in an undertaking which it is beyond their power to accomplish.

Let the impression go forth that Geo. Smith & Co. are endeavoring to muzzle the Press, and the last "spasm of the Atlanta Bank" will soon be over."
